Student Grievance Committee

Vision

To create a fair, transparent, and student-friendly environment where every student feels heard, respected, and supported, ensuring justice and equality within the institution.

Mission

1. To provide a structured and confidential platform for students to raise grievances without fear of retaliation.
2. To ensure timely, impartial, and transparent resolution of complaints.
3. To promote awareness among students about their rights and responsibilities.
4. To uphold discipline, mutual respect, and ethical conduct within the campus community.
5. To continuously improve institutional policies by addressing recurring concerns and feedback from students.
